Sports

"The Malabar harriers, in a close shave last night, defeated . . ."

Cross Country

For the first time the Cross Country Team won the Cardinal Conference. Led by Captain Dudley Thomas, the team finished with a 44-13 record, placing third in the Malabar Invitational and fourth in the Sectional. Jim Loesch, Dudley Thomas, and Rob Pritchard all earned the right to run in the District.

Jim Loesch and Dudley Thomas were picked as co-MVP. Rob Pritchard received the outstanding sophomore award. This year's outstanding seniors were Dudley Thomas and Tom Albert. Lloyd Goettl, captain for the 1975 season, Jim Loesch, Rob Pritchard, Alan Koser, and Jim Starkey will be returning next year.

Girls Volleyball

Varsity Girls Volleyball, coached by Miss Hocking, completed its best season ever with a 14-2 record. Defeats came in the last match of the season against Ashland and in the area tournament against Madison, where Malabar took third.

Receiving awards at the fall sports banquet were Pam Rigo, MVP; Beverly Bur, best offensive player; Jane Borkin and Julie Barkett, best defensive players; and Debbie Overlay, most improved player.

Golf

Coached by Don DeBaltzo, the '74 varsity golf team of senior John Barker and juniors Mike Bagley, Ken Klein, Alex McDonald, and Jeff Mosier compiled a 8-9-1 record. Falcons took third in the Sectionals at Huron and qualified for the District meet at Toledo where they made their lowest score of the season. In the Mansfield Tournament, Malabar finished fourth of six teams, but John Barker earned Medalist honors with a 73.

At the fall sports banquet John Barker was named Most Valuable Golfer and Alex McDonald, Most Improved. With four returning lettermen and hopefuls from Appleseed, the '75 season looks very promising.

Girls Tennis

This year's Girl's Tennis Team ended in a victorious season with a total of 11 wins and 2 losses. Along with their succession of wins the Falconettes shut out four of their opposition. Top players this year include Lee Wallington, Sandy Baumberger, Cindy McCarrick, Jane Neuman, and Nancy Pival.

Coach Henry presented the following awards at the Girl's Sports Banquet, Lee Wallington was most valuable player, Judy Dignan received most improved. Lee Wallington and Cindy McCarrick also received three year varsity plaques.

Football

With high spirits and rousing determination, the 1974 Fighting Falcons opened the season with an impressive 28-0 win over Lexington. However, many disappointing first-string injuries made it difficult for the team to unite for another victory until a 23-21 effort over Wooster in the fourth game of the season. The gridders ended the year on a winning note, though, with a well-earned 12-6 victory over Clear Fork.

Several Falcons turned in sparkling individual efforts including Toby Matney, Bill Donaldson, Jim Bagley, and Tom Evans. Some outstanding records set this year were a career high of 117 tackles and 144 assists by Toby Matney; longest run from scrimmage, 83 yards by Vic Mack; and Jim Bagley's single-game scoring record of 18 points.

Coach Landsittel has already begun preparation for the upcoming season with his spring conditioning program. He feels his 22 returning lettermen, including sophomore stand-outs Brad Hahn and Jim Bagley, should provide a solid nucleus for next year's team.

Wrestling

The 1974-75 Fighting Falcon wrestlers had an excellent season, finishing the year with a 5 and 3 mark. Led by seniors Jim Black, Toby Matney, Jim Waud and Dean Sziraki, the wrestlers posted Malabar's second best record ever.

Toby Matney finished the year with a 27 and 1 record, winning the Cardinal Conference and J. C. Gorman tournaments and finishing third in the state.

Coach Wilson views next season's team as having good potential with the return of eight varsity wrestlers.

Softball

Girls softball was again added to the list of Falcon spring sports with a 7 game schedule. The girls worked together to raise $400 to cover expenses. All home games were played at Prospect Park.

The 15 member team consisted of 7 seniors: Toni Marfia, Pam Rigo, Dorothy George, Madeline Chatlain, Kim Pitman, Marianne Jocha, and Robin Stewart; 6 juniors: Jeanine Owen, Tonya Miller, Sue Finefrock, Pam Tellard, Jenny Pastor, and Margaret Whitt; and 2 sophomores: Deb Barr and Karen Vetter.

Basketball

Led by first-year head coach Bill Swartzmiller, the Falcons showed great determination and aggressiveness but were hampered by several varsity injuries. They couldn't put the winning points on the board until their third game, against Ontario, which they won 73-64. Although they could not unite for another win, the team never lost its spirit and enthusiasm through many close, heartbreaking contests. Seniors Scot Todd, Bill Donaldson, Bob Hagar, Scott Neumann, David Reed and Jeff Morris demonstrated outstanding leadership and pride.

A strong core for next year's team will be provided by five returning varsity lettermen. Coaches Swartzmiller and Hart have an optimistic outlook for the 1975-76 season.

Girls Basketball

Hard-working and dedicated describe the '75 Girls Varsity Basketball team. Although their 3-6 record was a little disappointing, the Falcons were never far behind their opponents. Victories were recorded over Ashland, Senior High, and Lexington.

At the winter sports banquet awards went to Jane Botkin — MVP; Lisa Smith — Most Improved; Julie Barkett — Best Offensive Player; and Pam Rigo — Best Defensive Player.

With five returning players, Coach Hocking is anticipating a good '76 season.

Swimming

This year's Malabar swim team swam to an impressive 7-2 record with several high finishes in prominent relays. The Falcons gained second place in the Port Clinton, Bowling Green and Malabar Relays, as well as a third in the District meet.

Several school records were set by Jim Loesch and Bob Mabec over the course of the season. Loesch will return to help next year's team, but the leadership of seven senior lettermen will certainly be missed.

Baseball

The baseball team got off to an excellent start this year, winning four straight before dropping a close conference game to New Philly. The Falcons dealt a tough Ashland team two straight losses and gained a big victory over Senior High on the Tyger's home field.

Malabar had the highest composite batting average in the area for the first part of the season with Matt Boyle topping the individual list for three weeks.

Rookie coach Dave Roberts is looking forward to another productive year, although the seniors will be missed.

Tennis

Under the leadership of second-year coach Nelson Whisler, the Malabar tennis team got off to a good start this year with several major wins, as well as a victory in the tough Chevrolet Invitational in Ashland. Scott Neumann and Bill Radler, last year's District doubles champs, continued their success in both singles and doubles, while Jim Waud, Ed Morris, Steve Vivian, and Bill Jones provided excellent depth in the solid team.

Seniors Neumann and Waud will certainly be missed, but five returning lettermen will provide the strength for next year's netters.

Boys' Track

"I've been satisfied with the performances of the boys this year," commented Coach Gordon Shipley, "but we certainly miss the outstanding athletes who graduated last year and we are now rebuilding the team."

Falcon runners were strong this year but scoring in field events suffered because of injuries and lack of participants in these events. The team had only 4 seniors, which left 14 events for the underclassmen to cover. Outstanding tracksters included Bill Keefer in the 100 and 220 yd. dashes, Curtis Hall in the 440 yd. dash, and Darrick Beauford in the hurdles.

LES FEMMES

Each year Malabar's most photogenic senior girls are selected by a celebrity, a fraternity, or some well-known personality.

The 1975 selections were made by the Cincinnati Bengals when they played the "Malabar All-Stars" in a fund-raising basketball game in Mansfield.

The Bengals chose seven girls rather than the traditional four. The ACCIPITER released the story in its February 14 issue.
